

TIGER

272

Dear

How really good it would be to have a book of just the things we need for the great Democratic Party. I am sure it is of value to all. I hope to see more of you in the future.
Sincerely,
J. M. Smith

today of all days october 8th
i think of you and why i don't know for i haven't seen you in so long but the memory of you still lingers all i wanted was for you to be happy and i wanted you to stay forever but you said like the seasons your love is promised for today but tomorrow well just don't tie me down just be content for this minute we share together and let come what must

tina naoum

the early light of dawn sneaks slowly down the sand while the water slowly rises and overcomes the land the sounds of animals scurrying through the lonely night slowly disappear
'neath this awesome sight a black cloud drifts across the sand ever so stealthily consuming all of man

maria angelakis

never having been free i mistook the fire for the sun now the truth has come to me i look to see what i have done jeneth

in the softly comforting rays of daybreak we stand together transfixed as the reborn sun remembering yesterday appreciating today and contemplating tomorrow awed a little at the world before us and the intermingling of lifes many roads seeking the assurty that as the sunstrained clouds of days end surrendering their glowing oranges and gold for the mellow purpleness of sunset we will have lived as ourselves

cranes beach sleepy looking adorable houses the great tigers smiling people coming and going with a lot of things to tell thank you for letting me be a part of all of it in 1971-72

my experience
here was unique and you made it possible through your afs activities your kindness and your helpfulness

what i learned here and what i will bring back to finland with me
cannot be expressed very well in words however after recovering from the sudden change in environment after getting used to seeing your big cars and modern shopping centers i started to distinguish people
amongst the crowd of faces i realized that watching peyton place ironside
and the virginian
had taught me as little about americans as knowing the

there is no real way for me to repay the people who have so greatly contributed to my exchange year in the historic town of ipswich
but i hope someday to come back to see you all again until then may the intervening years prove to be filled with good fortune for your school and town

kiitos
thank you

latitude of finland would teach you about the finnish money may be a great concern in your culture and you may live in two story wooden houses instead of three story brick ones but the interests and basic behavior patterns of people are essentially the same throughout our western culture the young people especially seem to live beyond the boundaries of ipswich or valkeakoski the warmth is the same the problems are the same the hope is the same

it was a happy hour for me when i sent my name into american field service international. afs to me is a wonderful experience for anyone to go to a new country speak another language live with a new family and meet people.

i happened to come to ipswich this year and i must say that i couldn't be any happier because i like this town and its friendly people both in and outside of school.

to my host family i think i can express what i feel for them in one word wonderful.

the USA is a nice country with nice people and i leave it with deep impressions of my experience here.

this year may not have been ipswich's most fantastic but it had it's exciting moments. the team as a whole was not victorious but it did have an outstanding leader. captain dan "bug" laroche earned such honors as placing first in the state and regional tournaments and fourth in the new england championship. the misfortune of the rest of the team was probably due to the many serious injuries incurred throughout the season.

The seniors are going
At least I think they are.

Where?

Nobody knows

But they are going

I mean they goes

(To rhyme with "knows")

Do we care?

(To rhyme with "where")

We do

Very much.

The fact is this is more difficult than I thought,

I ought -

I ought

To begin again,

But it is easier

To stop.

Seniors, good-bye,

I

I

And all your friends

Sends -

I mean all your friend

Send -

Well anyhow, we send

Our love,

End.

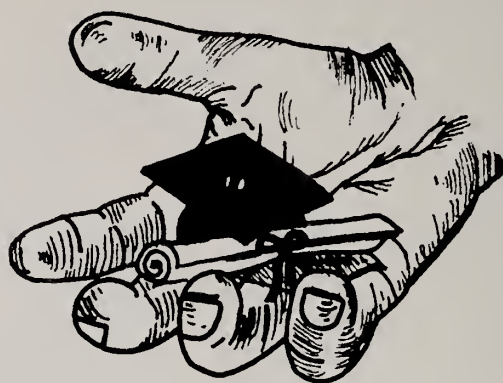

Jane,
I think it's pretty good that a kid can be so smart, talented and just an over all great kid!!! Don't ever change because we love you just the way you are,

Love,
Richard
B.
